JULIE ANN

Funeral Celebrant at Latansani

I write original
and sensitive
funeral services
and eulogies. I can incorporate
poetry, lyrics,
readings as per
your wishes or
those which may have been outlined in requests.

Your funeral
service will be so
personal, with the history and
wishes of your loved one at the heart of the commemoration.

PRICE FOR THIS SERVICE
START FROM £180 AND IS COMPRISED OF:

Initial consultation

It is so important for us to discover how you foresee this occasion unfolding. At our first meeting, I will listen to any specific ideas that you have or wishes that have been made explicit; I will ensure that all is handled sensitively so that I can begin the crafting of the order of service and eulogy.

The Tribute

Depending upon your preferences, I could draft a script for your approval. However, for such an important occasion, I have found it to be warmer and more compassionate to deliver this respectful tribute, in person, on your chosen day.

You can trust that you are in the best hands.

Conducting the Service

I will be at the designated venue an hour before the scheduled start, ready to be at your service and ready to lead. Afterwards, I will present you with a commemorative copy of the tribute for you to freely distribute.

Civil Funerals are becoming more commonplace in the UK, as they are an alternative to a religious or an atheist funeral ceremony, or perhaps a combination of both.

In a scheduled meeting with those responsible for organising the service, I help to put into words, in the most dignified manner, what needs to be said. My services include any necessary liaison with funeral directors and crematorium staff. If you are planning a scattering of ashes service, I will liaise with those responsible for the proposed site.

I led the tributes and eulogy at my own wonderful Mother's funeral to make sure that this beautiful lady had the service that she had pre-determined. It combined music - which meant so much to her as well as the important people who had featured in her life - poems, readings and even a most unique video montage - a pictorial chronology of a full and vibrant life. It represented her personality and life entirely and left those gathered to honour her in no doubt that she did it her way!

With your help, I can place the emphasis on the life of the deceased, not the beliefs of me as the person officiating. I write each ceremony to capture the essence of your loved one, using words, perhaps a specially written poem, music and personal reminiscences through a biography, gathered with sensitivity and care for those who are bereaved.
