Name: Date:

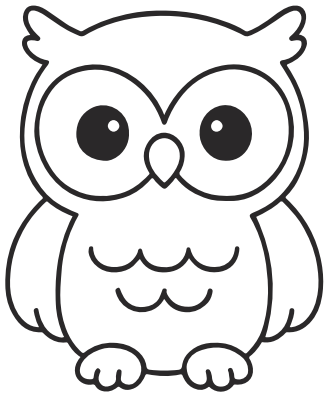

A Tree Full of Friends

What does a home give us?
Tick the things that help us feel safe.

- ☐ A loud noise
- ☐ A safe place
- ☐ Food and water
- ☐ Someone who cares

Who lives in the spruce?

Look Again...
Is there room for one more tiny creature there? Draw one more friend who lives in the tree.

Name: Date:

A Tree Full of Friends

Trace these words.

Name: Date:

How Does Strigo Feel?

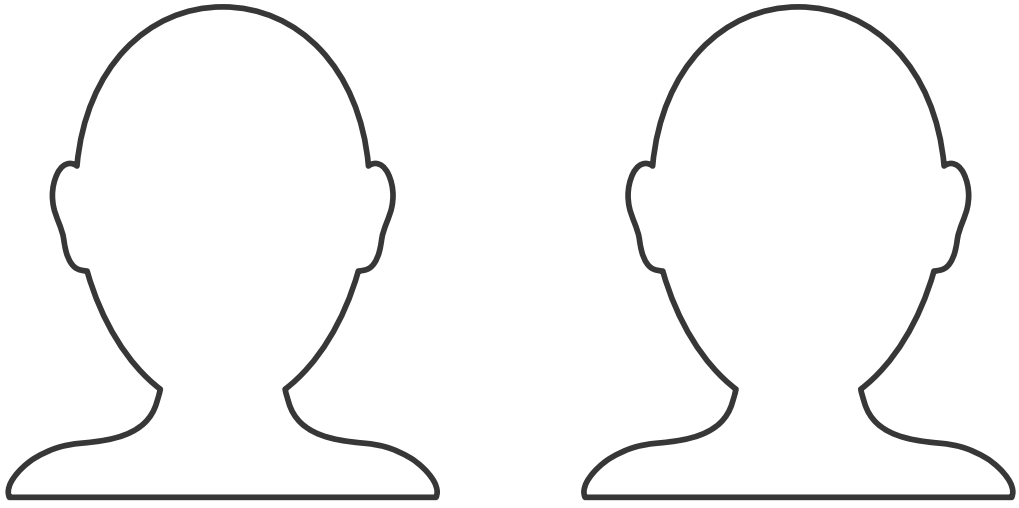

Tick how Strigo might feel.

- ☐ happy
- ☐ worried
- ☐ scared
- ☐ excited

Draw Strigo's face when she feels worried.

Look Again...

Can two friends feel differently about the same thing? Fill in two faces, each showing different feelings.

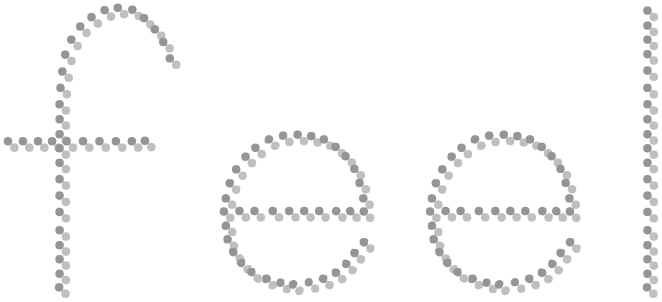

Name: Date:

How Does Strigo Feel?

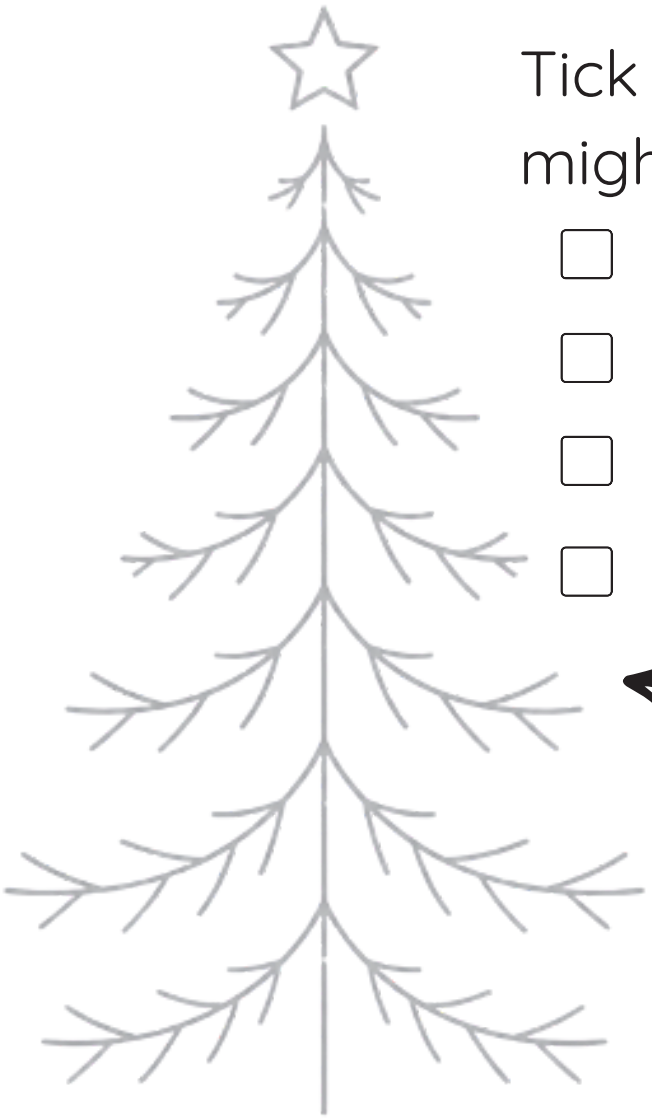

Trace these words.

Aves Looks closely

Tick the things a kind person might do

- [ ] look carefully
- [ ] tell a trusted adult
- [ ] shout at the animal
- [ ] try to rescue the animal

Draw an owl hiding among the branches.

Look Again...
What else might be hiding in this tree that no-one notices at first? Draw one tiny living thing.

Name: Date:

Aves Looks Closely

Trace these words.

look

look

look

Rusty Helps Strigo

Tick the things a friend should do

- [ ] sit beside a sad friend
- [ ] listen to someone
- [ ] laugh when someone is sad
- [ ] tell someone else their secrets

Draw Rusty sitting beside Strigo

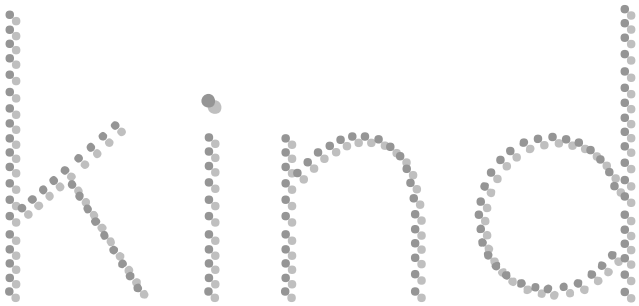

Think Again...

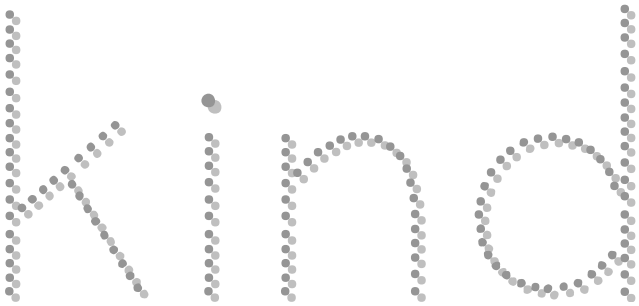

What do you do to help a friend at school?

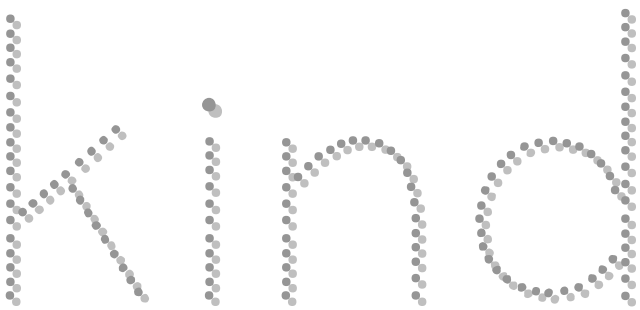

Name: Date:

Rusty Helps Strigo

Trace these words.

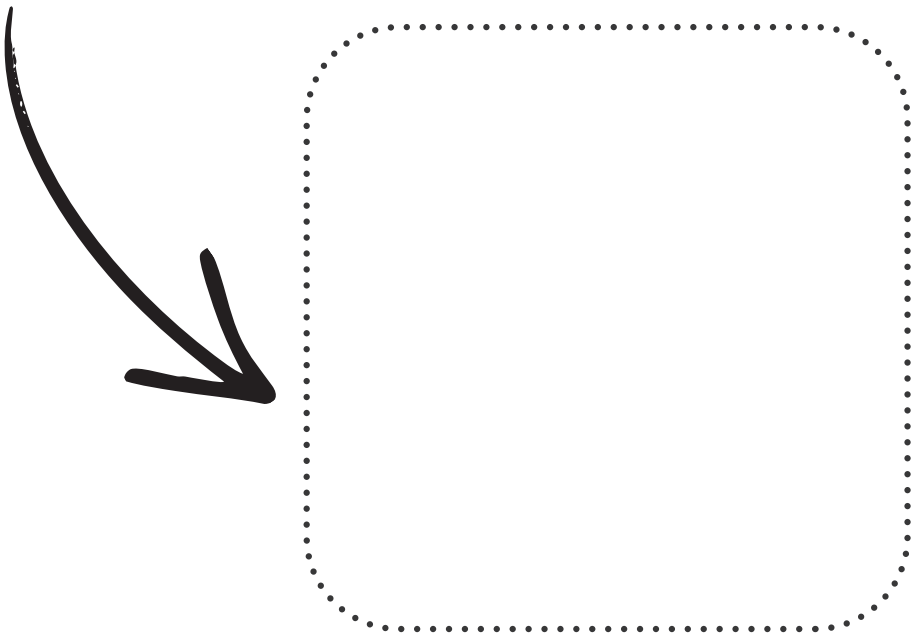

A Little Thing That Matters

Rusty's accorn becomes a reminder of the old tree. What could it mean?

- ☐ remembering a home
- ☐ caring about someone
- ☐ growing something new

Draw a small object that makes you think of someone or somewhere important

Think Again...
Can a tiny thing carry a big feeling?

Name: Date:

A Little Thing Matters

Trace these words.

care

care

care

Trying Somewhere New

Tick the things that might be different when you move somewhere new.

- ☐ school
- ☐ friends
- ☐ sounds
- ☐ neighbours
- ☐ play places
- ☐ family
- ☐ toys
- ☐ hiding places

Draw something that Rusty finds in his new place.

Think Again...
Does being new mean you don't belong?

Name: Date:

Trying Somewhere New

Trace these words.

new

new

new

Sharing A Space

When someone new from your class comes to you at playtime, what can you do to help them belong?

- ☐ take turns
- ☐ push them away
- ☐ find another spot
- ☐ leave some space
- ☐ let them join in
- ☐ tell them to go away

Draw Commander Crunch and Moss on the same branch.

Name: Date:

Sharing A Space

Trace these words.

share

share

share

Looking After Our World

Choose the actions that show we care about our world.

- ☐ drop litter
- ☐ watch wildlife
- ☐ cut down trees
- ☐ protect trees
- ☐ use less water
- ☐ walk more

What grows? Write down some things that you might plant that would grow into something much bigger. Draw what they grow into.

Think Again...

A small thing like an acorn can grow into something much bigger. Can one caring action make a big difference too?

Name: Date:

Looking After Our World

Trace these words.

grow

grow

grow